Sew What's New?

Dear Sewing Friends,

I have just returned from the Las Vegas Fabric Show, and many new things are arriving daily. For special occasions, prom and bridal –Tiaras– full crowns and mini tiaras on a comb or barrette , rhinestones by the yard, satins, crepe back satin, chiffon, crystal organza, and sparkle tulle. From a wonderful designer I found sterling silver and red bronze buttons in the shapes of leaves (like in the movie Lord of the Rings), flowers, and twigs. "Free Lace" is a new book from Mokuba Ribbons and we have several of their kits too. Sweater knits are very popular this season in pastels of sage/periwinkle, royal, ice pink, ice blue, and buttercup. In addition we just received designer tweed suiting with coordinating solids,- great for spring suits and career wear. We have doubled our inventory of cottons and batiks, and have all the satins and cotton sateens for the Latte' Quilt in stock. Brown is forecasted to be the "New Black" in fashion basics. Currently we have slinky, matte jersey, crepe, poly/rayon suiting with coordinating prints in stock. However white is still a fashion basic for spring and summer, especially here in South Florida. Finally, for the perfect touch under a romantic cotton dress, we now have lingerie tricot for a sweet camisole or slip and the matching adjustable slip straps. Please join us for our Mother's Day Red Dot sale May 6 through May 11(see page 4 for details), and register for any of our 16 new classes, or stop by just to see and feel what is new. Have you sewn something new lately?

Sincerely,

Cynthia
